

Constraints on Galaxy Formation from Observations of Resolved Fossils

Annette Ferguson, MPA, Germany

Abstract I will discuss observations of the resolved fossil stellar populations in M31 and/or M33 which place constraints on galaxy formation and evolution models, for example constraints on the age/star formation history of disks at large radius and the existence and nature of substructure in the stellar halo.